On the reef you can see, stingrays, eagle rays, morays, turtles, lion fishes, parrot fishes, scorpion fishes, frog fishes, cleaner stations, reef sharks just to mention a few.

During the southwest monsoon season (May-Nov) we also sometimes see mantas and with a bit of luck even whale sharks!

8. House Reef / Lagoon

The lagoon and house reef are nice and easy for snorkeling. There is a lot to see like baby black tip sharks, baby eagle rays, stingrays, all kind of young and adult reef fish.

The whole way around Huvahendhoo we have a wall, alternating from slope to vertical. On the south east side, big overhangs cover the wall from 10 m down to 20 m. The reef houses lobsters, many different moray eels and wide variety of reef fish. On the reef wall we often see cleaning shrimps and cleaner wrasses waiting for business.

Bigger life such as mantas, whale sharks, eagle rays and stingrays can sometimes be seen passing by.

Also perfect for a night dive, as we can view moray eels and stingrays at close range. The whole wall is pulsating with nocturnal life from feeding coral polyps and lobsters to curious octopuses.

OCEAN-PRO Dive Team uses the calm, clear, shallow waters of the lagoon and the beautiful house reef for scuba lessons and open water dives.
